RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Graduate Student Researcher

August 2022 – Present

Harvard University
Department of Psychology, Clinical Science Program
Clinical Research Laboratory
Supervisor: Jill M. Hooley, Ph.D.

Projects:

Interpretation and Memory Biases in Digital Contexts: Implications for Social Functioning and Psychopathology

The Differential Roles of Perceived Criticism and Self-Criticism in the Functions of Non-Suicidal Self-Injury

Perceived Criticism and Praise on Social Media Platforms in Clinical and Non-Clinical Populations

Clinical Research Coordinator II

June 2020 – June 2022

Massachusetts General Hospital
Department of Psychiatry, Athinoula A. Martinos Center for Biomedical Imaging
Emotion and Social Neuroscience Laboratory; Resilience and Prevention Program
Supervisors: Daphne J. Holt, M.D., Ph.D. & Nicole R. DeTore, Ph.D.

Projects:

Mental Health on the College Campus: Longitudinal Predictors of Psychopathology and Functioning in Young Adults

The Effects of a Transdiagnostic, CBT-Based Intervention on Neural Mechanisms of Psychopathology and Resilience in Young Adults At-Risk for Severe Mental Illness

The Effects of a Virtual-Reality-Based Intervention and Personal Space Manipulation on Resilience and Social Functioning

Optimizing a Novel, School-Based Intervention for Early Detection and Prevention of Psychotic Disorders: Neural Mechanisms and Risk Factors for Mental Illness Among Adolescents

Lab Manager

June 2019 – June 2020

Vanderbilt University
Department of Psychology and Human Development
Conversation Laboratory
Supervisor: Sarah Brown-Schmidt, Ph.D.

Projects:

Cognitive Processes of Engagement with Dieting and Fitness Material on Social Media: Implications for Individuals with Disordered Eating Behaviors

Memory for Social Media Engagement: Exploring the “Generation Effect” in the Contexts of Instagram and Disordered Eating

Effects of Induced Mood on Later Recall of Two-Party Conversation

Language Processing and Production in Social Media Contexts among Individuals with Traumatic Brain Injury

Clinical Research Assistant

August 2019 – May 2020

Vanderbilt University Medical Center
Department of Psychiatry
Blackford Lab
Supervisor: Jennifer Blackford, Ph.D.

Projects:

Fear Conditioning and Generalization in Adolescents with Anxiety Disorders: Neural and Physiological Responses to Unpredictable Threat

Anxiety Neurocircuitry and Stress Reactivity in Adults Recovering from Alcohol Use Disorder

Research Assistant

August 2017 – June 2019

Vanderbilt University
Department of Psychology and Human Development
Conversation Laboratory
Supervisor: Sarah Brown-Schmidt, Ph.D.

Projects:

Memory for Social Media Engagement: Exploring the “Generation Effect” in the Contexts of Instagram and Disordered Eating

The Effects of Elaborative Encoding on Memory for Conversation: Implications for Eye-Witness Testimony

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Practicum Student

June 2023 – Present

OCD Institute, McLean Hospital
Adult Residential Program
Supervisors: Michèle Candrian, Ph.D., & Nathaniel Van Kirk, Ph.D.
Belmont, MA
